3. [redacted] on 29 January 22 boxcars with ammunition and 8 empty boxcars were dispatched from Wulkow to Wildpark [redacted]

4. On 30 January, 34 boxcars with ammunition were unloaded at the Setzkorn railroad station. The train [redacted] was dispatched [redacted]

1. [redacted] Comment. Ammunition depots of the Twenty-Fourth Air Army are located at Luckau-Pramsdorf and Dellgow.

2. [redacted] Comment. The largest ordnance and equipment depot of the Twenty-Fourth Air Army is located at Strausterg. An air force equipment depot and a repair installation are located at Dellgow-Doeberitz.

3. [redacted] Comment. Soviet units in Germany are being re-equipped with 85-mm AT guns. [redacted]

4. [redacted] Comment. Ammunition for the Southern Ground Attack Division.

5. [redacted] Comment. The ammunition shipments reported in paragraphs 3 and 4 of the present report are identical with the shipments in paragraph 2. A large ammunition depot of the GOFG is located at Wulkow, while an ammunition depot of the Fourth Gds Necz Army is located at Waldeslust near Eberswalde-Finow. [redacted]

[redacted] The receiving station Setzkorn mentioned in connection with the shipment reported in paragraph 4 appears improbable as no sizeable ammunition depot is located there. Possibly, however, part of the shipment was consigned to the 10th Gds Tank Div [redacted] in Setzkorn while most of the shipment was dispatched to Wulkow as was indicated in paragraph 2. Prior to the fall of 1952, [redacted]

6. A large fuel depot of the Twenty-Fourth Air Army is located at Velten, while the fuel depot of the Northern Fighter Corps is located in Eberswalde-Eisenspalterei.
